Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR URBAN DEVELOPMENT & POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA)

(a)to(c): Yes, Sir. The Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi has reported that the procedure to execute the Warrant of Possession is laid in Rule 35, Order XXI of Code of Civil Procedure (CPC) 1908.Tehsildars, Vasant Vihar and Najafgarh are following the same procedure while executing the Warrant of Possession. 48 and 225 Warrants of Possession are lying pending for execution with Tehsildars, Vasant Vihar and Najafgarh respectively. All efforts are being made to liquidate the pendency on execution of warrants of possession. However, it involves demolition of authorised structures, which is a time consuming process as well as involves high degree of coordination among various agencies including the availability of Police Force.

(d)&(e): 13 Nos. execution petitions are pending with RA (Hauz Khas) since 9.11.2001 for issuing Warrant of Possession and as such there is no delay. These may take approximately 3 years for executing Warrant of Possession.
